POSTAL AUCTION

CLOSING AT NOON

30th JANUARY 2026

Conditions of Postal Sale

The CMS reserves the right to refuse items which are damaged or unsuitable, or we have doubts about authenticity.

Reserves can be placed on lots but must be agreed with the CMS. They should reflect realistic values/expectations and not be the "highest price" expected.

The CMS will take 7% of the price realised, the vendor 93% which will normally be paid no later than 6 weeks after the auction.

The CMS will undertake to advertise the memorabilia for auction on its website no later than 3 weeks prior to the closing date of the auction. Bids will only be accepted from CMS members.

Postal bids must be in writing or e-mail by the closing date and time shown above. Generally, no item will be sold below 10% of the lower estimate without reference to the vendor. Thus, an item with a £10-15 estimate can be sold for £9, but not £8, without approval.

The incremental scale for the acceptance of bids is as follows: £2 increments up to £20, then £20/22/25/28/30 up to £50, then £5 increments to £100 and £10 increments above that. So, if there are two postal bids at £25 and £30, the item will go to the higher bidder at £28. Should there be two identical bids, the first received will win. Bids submitted between increments will be accepted, thus a £52 bid will not be rounded either up or down. Any bids submitted with pence, ie. £5.20 or £5.80, will be rounded up.

Items will be sent to successful postal bidders within 3 weeks of the auction and will be sent by the cheapest rate commensurate with the value and size of the item. Postage and packaging will be paid by the successful postal bidder. Successful bidders should aim to pay quickly, so that accounts with vendors can be settled.

The CMS will be responsible for the items sent for auction while they are in the possession of the CMS.

A list of prices realised at an auction will be published on the Society's website.

Remember - it is the only cricket auction with no buyer's premium – and postage is charged at cost!

COLLECTION 2

EPHEMERA

97. Andrew Flintoff. A collection of items relating to him being made an Honorary Freeman of the City of Preston on 20th wife and the framed award; and an 8 page supplement from the Lancashire Evening January 2006: a programme of events; a menu for the celebration dinner – a very ‘Lancashire’ menu, except the coffee; a 4 page article from Lancashire Life March 2006 which includes an A4 photo of Flintoff, his Post dated 21st January 2006 covering the event. VG

Est. £4/6

AUTOGRAPHED ITEMS

98. Alan Knott. A folded A4 card programme for a Cowcorner Events, possibly in February 2020, but undated, for an evening with Alan Knott – somewhere! Signed to the front cover image by Alan Knott. As new

Est. £3/5

99. David Gower. Heroes of Cricket Issue no. 1, published by The Wisden Cricketer in 2008. It appears to be the first of a planned series of three, with Viv Richards being the subject of the second. Signed to the front cover by Gower. Excellent

Est. £4/6

100. 150 Years of Middlesex County Cricket Club 1864 – 2014. Commemorative brochure, a glossy publication of 114pp. As part of the anniversary Royal Mail produced a pack of 10 stamps, each featuring a firework alongside which was a famous Middlesex cricketer. The Lot includes six of these packs, two of which have been signed by Mike Gatting, Mike Brearley and Andrew Strauss, each of whom is in the 10. It is not clear whether these stamps were ever meant to be used, or were just for display, the latter seeming more probable. Each item is in excellent condition.

Est. £5/8

101. Geoffrey Boycott. Two items signed by him to the front cover. (1) Geoff Boycott Yorkshire and England 10 years as No. 1; this lacks a publisher’s name or date. It is printed in landscape, in colour and is a biography in effect; and (2) Big Issue North dated May 2017 contains a picture of Boycott on the cover and there is an interview with him under the heading ‘Cricket’s Lancashire-loving Yorkshireman’. Both are excellent and more unusual Boycott items. Est. £4/6

102. Lancashire Spin. Four issues, spring and summer 2008 and 2009, each copy with several Lancashire signatures, perhaps the most interesting being that of V V S Laxman. Sold with a July 2012 extract from the same magazine of an article about Glen Chapple which had been signed by him. Also included is a copy of Red Rose Together, being that year’s membership brochure featuring Glen Chapple on the cover with the title ‘I am the Red Rose’ and signed by him. All excellent

103. Three signed, limited edition cards from Lancashire League clubs. (1) Rishton, featuring Allan Donald, ltd ed 21/50 with scorecards of two 1996 matches in which Donald took 7-18 and 7-3 respectively; (2) Colne, featuring Ben Johnson (South Australia for the uninitiated, like me), ltd ed 35/50 with his batting and bowling stats for the 1996 season, a season in which he beat the previous records for both Colne and the Lancashire League in terms of runs scored in a season; and (3) Lowerhouse, featuring Corrie Jordaan, a South African, ltd ed 129/150 which shows his bowling figures for the 1997 season in which he took 100 wickets at 9.27. Each is a four page stiff card and as new. Sold with a copy of The Cricketer for November 1995 which has an article with Allan Donald and a loose front cover bears his signature. Est. £5/10

104. Two ‘Chance to Shine’ brochures, the first being ‘The First 10 Years’; the second being ‘Our Impact Explained’ – the Annual Review 2014. Both are signed to the front cover by Geoff

Miller. Although the 2013/14 Honours Board has a stellar list of names associated with this very worthwhile charity, Geoff Miller does not feature, making the link somewhat tenuous. As new. Sold with a copy of Street Cred, this August 2009 issue being a special commemorative edition in association with the PCA to celebrate the Centenary of George Headley. Signed to the front cover by Ron Headley. WCCC and dated 28 November 2009. Also as new Est. £5/8

105. Glamorgan Matters – the county magazine for Autumn/Hydref 2003. Internally, a picture of David Harrison has been signed. Not a county magazine of which we see many copies – so let's see if we can sell one of the few! As new Est. £2/3

106. The Wisden Cricketer calendar 2010. As always with the calendar, there are 12 stunning photographs of cricket grounds but the inside cover contains some 36 signatures including Alan Moss, Clive Radley, John Jameson, Roy Virgin, Chris Old, Don Shepherd and John Barclay. Several journalists and broadcasters feature including Duncan Hamilton, David Warner (he of Yorkshire stock, not Aussie), Sir Tim Rice and Ralph Deller. As new Est. £10/15

107. Kent first day cover for the Golden Jubilee of the Kent County Playing Fields Association 1926-76 Festival of Sport held at the St Lawrence Ground, Canterbury on 18th September 1976. Not all of the 14 signatures can be translated but among them are Derek Underwood, Graham Johnson, John Shepherd, Alan Ealham, Mike Denness, Norman Graham, Chris Tavaré, Asif Iqbal, Brian Luckhurst and Bob Woolmer. VG+ Est. £10/18

108. An A5 plus sheet from an autograph book with the heading 'This sheet belonged to Arthur McIntyre'. (I seem to recall that we've sold some of these before.) The list is, as signed: D Wright, J Warr, R Berry, J G Dewes, L Hutton, F R Brown, A V Bedser, ???, ???, W G Parkhouse, D B Close, ???, D Compton, W Ferguson, R T Simpson, D S Sheppard, A J McIntyre and ??? A piece to the side is headed 'To do' under which Bailey has been crossed out but is not on this page. The page is quite scruffy and the edges frayed. All the signatures are in ink and with the odd exception most legible. Est. £18/25

109. Red Rose Books catalogue no. 25 which contains on the cover a Bob Bond caricature of Neil Fairbrother dated Lord's 1991 which has been signed by Fairbrother. The catalogue is from March 1999 and it is interesting to track the value of items some 25 years later. What is abundantly clear is that one's money would be worth more after leaving it under the bed for 25 years than buying cricket books! VG Est. £2/4

110. Two England items. Both are newspaper extracts mounted on card, one with the heading 'Escape to Victory' relating to England completing their finest comeback since Botham's Ashes thanks to Strauss' brilliant century. The picture shows Strauss waving his bat in the air in celebration and is signed by him. The other, from the Telegraph, is about 'fall guys', one being a picture of Anderson diving to take a catch in practice – and signed by him - the other of Vaughan and Pietersen being amused by Cook falling over. For newspaper cuttings they are fine. Est. £2/3

111. Three A4 sheets containing varying numbers of signatures. Each sheet is on the back of a month of a 2008 calendar (the pictures being amusing – just). The first has around 30 signatures of umpires from the 2008 season. Not surprisingly there are names from the days of yore, all identified by the vendor. The second sheet has signatures of Roy Swetman, Tom Graveney, Ken Palmer, Jim Parks and John M Brown – the Derbyshire scorer. The third has just four signatures – Jim Cumbes, Mike Smith (MJK) and two which are not clear. All VG Est. £8/15

Our vendor was in the habit of using surplus CMS 21st Anniversary envelopes for collecting autographs. The following 10 lots are in that format.

These are named in ink as Peter Lever and Ken Shuttleworth and both have signed; (2) no heading but the signatures are those of Dennis Brookes, Les Jackson and Godfrey Evans; (3) again no heading but it is from the meeting at Worcester on 30th January 1999 and signed by Tom Graveney, Roy Tattersall and Arthur Milton; and (4) this sheet with no formal heading has a handwritten heading 'Cricket Forum Old Trafford Thursday 14th April 2005 and is signed by Andy Peebles (who chaired the forum), Mike Watkinson, Mark Chilton, Jim Cumbes and Stuart Law. Our vendor has provided a short piece about Birtwell's playing days in the Lancashire League. A rare signature. VG Est. £8/12

126. Lancashire's Unique Double in 1990. An A4 card which folds into three vertically produced in a limited edition, this being 114/125. It contains the scorecards for the B&H Final and the NatWest Final, both of which Lancashire won. Between the two scorecards is a panel signed by 12 players and the manager. The opposite side shows the heading and the scores in each of the earlier rounds. In the B&H Final Lancashire positively flew to 241 in 55 overs and Worcestershire took 54 to accumulate 172. Sorry Richard! Excellent Est. £4/6

Included is a press cutting from The Times from 18th September 1956 headed 'Case for Cricket Reform' which includes a reference to the pamphlet which it describes as 'provocative'. 252. Cabinet card image of John Prince, Low Bentham, 6½ x 4". Such images were very popular in the late 19th century, ideal for a framed display or, because they were made on very solid card, just to stand on a mantelpiece or whatever. This is a splendid image of a well kitted out cricketer, complete with tie, stood erect with bat in his right hand, almost being used to hold his pose. His left hand is on his waist. The background is typical Yorkshire Dales scenery with higher hills in the distance. All the edges of the card are gilt and the reverse is blank. This is, I think, unusual as photographers of the day were keen to advertise their businesses. Attempts to find anything about cricket in Low Bentham have realised very little. The online 'Bentham News' carried an article about the club in May 2024 which mentioned a successful team in 1895 but no names of players were mentioned. This is an excellent item which warrants further research and perhaps a magazine article for the inquisitive. Est. £12/18

PRINTS AND PICTURES

284. Two Dickensian prints by Kyd. (1) 'Luffey' from The Pickwick Papers, depicted standing at the wicket about to bowl underarm an object which looks more the size of a cannonball than a cricket ball; and (2) 'Dumkins' also from The Pickwick Papers, depicted striding to the wicket with a rather wide bat. Both were produced by Images in Print in 1989; are A3+ in size and are 'as new', being wrapped in the original tissue paper in which they were sent to the vendor. Est. £10/20

'Kyd' was Joseph Clayton Clark (1857-1937), a prominent artist best known for his illustrations of Dickens characters which were published in magazines or sold as watercolours, rather than appearing in any editions of Dickens' novels. His work is available online but these cricket images do not appear to be currently available.

291. FICA International Cricket Hall of Fame. Six large prints, each in a photo montage format: The Australians - ten of the greatest players from Australia; The Indians - three of the greatest players from India; The English Batsmen – nine of the greatest players from England; The English Bowlers – seven of the greatest players from England; The West Indians – twelve of the greatest players from the West Indies; and The Pakistanis – three of the greatest players from Pakistan. As new. Sold with a further Hall of Fame print, this showing the five additional inductees in June 2000. These are Frank Woolley, Andy Roberts, Graham Gooch, Ian Chappell and Wilfred Rhodes. This has facsimile signatures of Roberts, Gooch and Chappell, as well as David Graveney (Chief Executive of the PCA) and Barry Richards (President of FICA). This is derived from a watercolour, produced in 2000 by Gary Keane, the print in a limited edition – 86/500. Also as new Est. £10/20

We learn from the last print that the original fifty members of the Hall of Fame were chosen in April 1999. However, that begs the question – ‘why are there only 44 cricketers depicted in the six large prints?’

292. ‘The Golden Years’ when Nottinghamshire cricketers led the world. This is described as a Nottingham Evening Post wallchart which was produced in 1975. The cricketers depicted are all from the pre-WW2 period – and members may wish to debate whether the county has produced any since. This is probably the largest item listed, being around 3 x 2’. Excellent Est. £2/4

293. *The View From The Boundary – Cricketing Legends from Yorkshire’s Golden Era. The original was a watercolour by John Blakey in 2005, the print, also produced in 2005, is a limited edition, this being 305/700 and is signed by the four cricketers depicted: Illingworth, Close, Trueman and Boycott. It is 46 x 50cms and comes with a Certificate of Authenticity, having been produced by Great Northern Books of Ilkley. As new Est. £40/60

Still available from GNB, framed, from £99.00 – 150.00 and there is an auction record of one selling for £90 without commission.

294. A bundle of Ken Taylor’s signed artwork. (1) Arthur Milton – a colour photo of the print mounted to card and signed above by Milton and below by Taylor; (2) Tom Graveney – as above but signed below by both; (3) Colin Ingleby-Mackenzie – one of the rarer subjects, a colour photo mounted to card with his signature below. The photo is also signed but this appears to be in the photo, rather than on it; (4) Brian Statham – two copies as described in (1) above; (5) Dickie Bird – two photos of the print which appear to have been made into postcards, both signed by Dickie; a slightly larger version with a signed dedication and a very unusual item – a framed and glazed version of the postcard sized image which is unsigned; (6) Fred Trueman – 2 copies as described in (1) above but one signed below just by Taylor, the other signed below by Taylor and the photo signed by Trueman; (7) Brian Close – two different images, one the usual version of Close batting, mounted photo to card signed below by Taylor, with the signatures of both to the photo perhaps being in it; the other being A4 size of Close sat with pads, smoking, waiting to bat, this certainly having been signed by Close; and (8) a montage in just one photo, mounted on card, of four from Yorkshire – top left Trueman, top right Bird, bottom left Close, bottom right Illingworth, signed just by Close. A really excellent collection of his work, all in almost as new condition. Est. £20/40

295. Mounted cartoon by Drew. Entitled ‘the umpire strikes back’, the umpire with bat in hand is about to hit the non-striking batsman. Overall 12 x 9.5”. Well drawn and available on eBay at £19.00. As new Est. £5/10

296. Five mounted, coloured Punch cartoon prints. (1) titled ‘Our Village Bowling’ by Frank Reynolds, it depicts nine characters and their inclinations to bowl. The last character is, though, the one that gets the wickets, measures 13 x 11”; (2) titled ‘The Village Stance’ by Frank Reynolds, it depicts eleven characters and their stances at the wicket. The character mentioned in (1) “can hardly stand at all”, measures 13 x 11”; (3) ‘Village Cricket’ by Fougasse (Cyril Kenneth Bird with a style similar to that of Reynolds), it depicts nine scenes illustrating that although it’s wise to know your own team, it’s far better to know the opposition, measures 13 x 11”; (4) ‘It’s all in the Game’, no artist shown but a similar style to the others, it depicts a bulky figure with moustache going out to bat and nine further images of his preparations; and (5) ‘It’s all in the Game’ a different image and shown to be by H M Bateman (thus (4) is also by him). Our character, having continued his preparations, has the sightscreen moved, is out first ball. The last image is of a very, very small batsman about to tackle the pavilion steps. All are amusing c1920 prints, measures 14 x 12”. All excellent Est. £10/20

297. Two mounted, coloured cricketing animal prints by Bryan Hall. One depicts a mouse in cricket sweater and blazer holding a bat and a ball with a broken wicket behind it, the other of a rabbit in a sweater holding a bat, ball on the ground, replacing a bail, being observed by a ladybird stood on the other bail. These are very attractive and perhaps justify that somewhat sugary description 'cute'. Both are 10 x 8" and are new. Attempts to find details of the artist have failed, although greetings cards by him will be found on eBay. Est. £2/4

298. A hand coloured mounted 1928 print of an elderly cricketer returning to the pavilion looking somewhat disgruntled. Below is the text 'WIFE (encouragingly): "You take longer to get a duck than you used to, dear'. The artist's name is unclear. A very attractive period piece. Measures 12 x 10.5". Excellent Est. £5/8

No artist shown but similar in style to (1). Measures 12 x 10", image itself 4 x 3". Both excellent Est. £5/8

300. It's all in the game a mounted print by H M Bateman, 1920 showing twelve caricature sketches mainly of an elderly, portly gentleman in various humorous positions. In the twelfth sketch our large gentleman is minute as he arrives at the foot of the pavilion steps and having been dismissed, one imagines, cheaply. A lovely period piece. VG Est. £5/8

All as new – none franked. If you add up the face value of all these stamps it would seem appropriate for the estimate to reflect that.

319. A Lancashire County C C XI v A Keith Miller XI, 1961. The match was Brian Statham's Benefit match and held at Seedhill, Nelson. The lot comprises a blank scorecard and several photocopied pages from local newspapers covering the event. On paper the teams were very respectable, the Lancashire team almost the full county side, whilst the Keith Miller team included Denis Compton, Johnny Wardle, Jack Pettiford and other Lancashire League pros. The articles express disappointment about the non-appearance of certain figures – it was widely expected that Ray Lindwall might play. However, our vendor turned up with his kit on the off-chance and got a game for the Keith Miller team. Alas, the actual, final scorecard can't be located but he recalled Ken Grieves hitting him for two 6s and Rusi Surti (Haslingden and India) dropping the attempted third on the boundary. A lovely nostalgic item, worth preserving. The photocopied items will challenge the visually impaired – and most others, but the scorecard is VG.
