Auction – 13.30

Auctioneer – Richard Brown

CRICKET MEMORABILIA SOCIETY

Conditions of Sale

The CMS welcomes items of cricket memorabilia for its auctions. There will normally be just two room auctions in the year - March and October, with a postal auction in July.

The CMS reserves the right to refuse items which are damaged etc., or we have doubts about authenticity.

Reserves can be placed on lots but must be agreed with the CMS. They should reflect realistic values/expectations and not be the "highest price" expected.

The CMS will take 7% of the price realised, the vendor 93% which will normally be paid 6 weeks after the auction. The commission for non-members is 10% of the price realised

The CMS will undertake to advertise the memorabilia to all its members (including overseas) and only CMS members are eligible to bid for items.

Members are welcome to send postal bids which should be in writing/e-mail before the auction. Bids will normally start at 60% of the lower estimate unless there is a higher reserve price or other postal bids. Any bids submitted with pence, ie. £5.20 or £5.80, will automatically be rounded up.

Items will be sent to successful postal bidders after the auction and will usually be sent by tracked postage which will be paid by the successful postal bidder. However, framed and glazed items must be collected at an auction or arrangements made for collection unless the buyer is content for items to be sent without insurance cover, as the CMS is unable to obtain insurance for such items.

The CMS will be responsible for the items sent for auction while they are in the possession of the CMS.

The CMS welcomes items of particular and unusual interest for the auctions. Non-members can send items for auction but we would discourage large quantities of books, magazines etc.

A list of prices realised at an auction will be displayed on the Society's website after the auction.

Remember - it is the only cricket auction with no buyers premium!

43. Six Worcestershire books. (1) The History of Worcestershire County Cricket Club by David Lemmon 1st edition, dw in protective cover, 1989 Helm series – at last a Helm book without signatures!; (2) Worcestershire in Stourbridge in 1905 by Peter Barnsley 1st edition, stiff card covers, [1995] limited edition of 250, no limitation number, signed dedication from the author; (3) Worcestershire County Cricket Club – A Pictorial History by Mike Vockins 1st edition, dw, 1980; (4) Worcestershire by Roy Genders 1st edition, dw in protective cover, 1952, The County Cricket Series; (5) A Who's Who of Worcestershire County Cricket Club by Robert Brooke and David Goodyear 1st edition, dw, 1990; and (6) Worcestershire Cricket 1950 to 1968 by W R Chignell 1st edition, dw [1968]. Condition: (1) – (3) as new, (4) and (5) VG, although (5) has a slight tear to the head of the dw, (6) good but wear to dw and top of pages a little grimy. Est. £10/15

The opening sentence of Chignell's Preface is "This book about Worcestershire County Cricket Club is, I fear, no more interesting than its predecessor." Inserted is a Book Review of the later work but the writer describes the predecessor as "the worst, or worst but one (opinions differ) of all county histories....."and he goes on to explain why. You now have an incentive to read both!

44. Four Oxford/Cambridge University tomes. (1) Oxford and Cambridge Cricket Scores and Biographies by J D Betham 1st edition, red cloth boards with some loss of colour to the spine, 1905; (2) Oxford and Cambridge at the Wicket by P F Warner and F S Ashley-Cooper 1st edition, blue cloth boards, heavy sunning to spine which extends slightly to front and rear boards, 1926; (3) History of the O.U.C.C. by G Bolton 1st edition, blue cloth boards with no loss of colour, 1962; and (4) Oxford and Cambridge Cricket by George Chesterton and Hubert Daggart 1st edition, dw, 1989. Faults as described for (1) and (2) but VG copies, (3) and (4) VG+ Est. £15/30

45. Fenner's – Reminiscences of Cambridge University Cricket by Percy Piggott. A scarce item of 39pp in paper wrappers, the front cover of which is detached. The covers are grey and there is browning where other books have been next to it. Published in [1948], there was a [1936] edition of 38pp with the title Incidents in Fifty Years of Cambridge University Cricket. Est. £8/12

46. Three Durham books. (1) From Minor to Major – Durham's First Year in the Championship by Simon Hughes 1st edition, dw in protective cover, 1992; (2) Durham – Birth of a First-Class County by Ralph Dellor 1st edition, dw in protective cover, 1992; and (3) Durham C.C.C. – Past, Present and Future by Jack Bannister and David Graveney 1st edition, dw in protective cover. These really are 'as new'. Est. £8/12

47. Intercept by Bevan Whitney. 1st edition, dw unclipped, 1965. The fep has a beautifully handwritten dedication to John Arlott by the author, with a pencil note that it was from John Arlott's library. On the opposite page is a bookplate 'Ex-libris of Roy F Arnold' with John Arlott's signature. Above the bookplate is a pencil note by Roy Arnold that it was 'signed by the author after coming out of hospital', which explains the dedication being dated April 3 1967. VG+ Est. £4/6

One poem with a cricket theme was spotted – but not read.

48. Two Webber's Cricket Year Books by Roy Webber, being for 1946-47 and 1947-48. Both were privately printed, the first being limited to 100 copies, the second to 250 copies. The limitation numbers are 26 and 25 respectively and signed by Roy Webber. The fep of each has a signed dedication to J C Clay. Rare, special and in VG+ condition. Est. £30/40

49. Nottinghamshire Cricket Championship Souvenir 1929 by F S Ashley-Cooper. 1st edition*, flimsy card covers with heavy spotting to the rear cover and lesser spotting internally, but not affecting any of the text pages. Wholly intact, no other faults/damage. * Padwick 2501 shows that there were two editions; there is nothing to indicate that this is other than the 1st edition. VG internally, good externally. Est. £25/35

50. Nine instructional books/pamphlets, early works, listed chronologically. (1) Cricket by the Hon. E Lyttelton 2nd edition, 1890, green dec front board, a little grubby but VG; (2)

Cricket by the Hon E Lyttelton, new edition, 1894 green dec boards, not quite the same illustration on the front cover, spine faded, VG; (3) Don'ts for Young Cricketers* by D C F Burton 1st edition [1921?] – even Padwick is uncertain, small, thin, tan covers with bookplate of Gordon Ross, VG for its age and format; (4) Cricket and how to play it* by Gilbert Jessop 1st edition, 1925 in blue cloth boards, no discolouration, a really VG copy; (5) Cricket* by M D Lyon 2nd (cheap) edition June 1933, red cloth boards, spine darker than covers, otherwise VG; (6) Cricket – How to Succeed* by Douglas Jardine 1st edition [1936], a larger pamphlet with Jardine to the front cover, some splitting to the spine with a slight loss to bottom left corner of the cover, good; (7) Cricket* by M D Lyon revised edition 1938, red cloth boards, dw in protective cover, a lovely copy; (8) Cricket – A Concise Guide for Enthusiast and Novice* by B Jordan 1st edition, [1939], small, olive green thin card covers, a little wear to the spine, otherwise a good+ copy; and (9) Cricket Practice and Tactics* by B W Hone 1948 reprint of 1st edition of 1937, dark green cloth boards, dw, a VG copy. These are very much a niche market, even by our collecting tastes, but there are some quite scarce items here. Condition as described.

Est. £10/20

51. Great Days at Lancaster Park by Gordon Slatter. 1st edition, very attractive dw in protective cover, 1974. A book published in New Zealand which covers not just cricket, but other sports which Lancaster Park has hosted. Hard to find in the UK. Excellent Est. £5/8

52. Five pre-1930 books. (1) Giants of the Game* by the Hon R H Lyttleton 1st edition, [1899], light green cloth boards with photo to front board, some discolouration to the spine. Inside is a splendid collection of press cuttings from the 1920/30s, including one relating to the 'bodyline' series, good+; (2) The Light Side of Cricket* edited by E B V Christian 1st edition 1898, fawn cloth boards with dec to front cover, browning to spine, a clean, tight copy (copies can be found either with fawn or red cloth boards, but the book was never reprinted), VG; (3) That Test Match* by Sir Home Gordon 1st edition 1921, light blue cloth boards, some marks to rear board and darkening to the spine, bookplate of Anthony Woodhouse, a novel (copies have been seen with bevelled edges, but the book was never reprinted), good+; (4) The Game's the Thing* by M A Noble 1st edition, 1926, dark green cloth boards, no loss of colour to the spine, minor marks to rear board, ownership of R L Arrowsmith, VG; and (5) The Man on the March* by Martin Cobbett 2nd edition, 1896 (but Padwick 7425 only records one edition) maroon boards with title in gilt to front board and titling etc in gilt to spine, browning to page edges, "a game of cricket" pp 335-340, good+. Condition as described. Est. £18/25

53. Six pre-1930 books. (1) Twenty Four Years of Cricket* by Arthur A Lilley 1st edition, 1912, dark green cloth boards with gilt titling etc to front board and spine, some minor marks and rubbing, otherwise a tight, clean copy, prize sticker from Hope Chapel, Salford dated 1912 to fep VG; (2) Willow & Leather* by E V Lucas 1st edition 1898, paper covers, the front cover being detached and some splitting to the paper on the spine, otherwise a clean, tight copy (this was one of Arrowsmith's Bristol Library series and can be found in a range of bindings), only good; (3) Cricket – An Anthology for Cricketers* edited by S J Looker 1st edition, 1925, dark red boards, spine a little darker and spine is starting to split in two places (can occasionally be found in a attractive dw), good+; (4) Between the Wickets – An Anthology of Cricket* compiled by Eric Parker 1st edition, 1926, dark green cloth boards, hardly discernible loss of colour to spine, gilt dec to front cover, gilt titling etc to spine, VG+; (5) The Light Side of Cricket* edited by E B V Christian 1st edition 1898, red cloth boards with dec to front cover, darkening to spine, a clean, tight copy (copies can be found either with fawn or red cloth boards, but the book was never reprinted), VG; and (6) Cricket* edited by Horace H Hutchinson 1st edition, 1903, dark red boards, slight darkening to spine and some minor rubbing, gilt titling to front board and spine, a weighty tome of 454pp, good+. Condition as described. Est. £18/25

54. The Cricketers' Birthday Book by Percy Cross Standing 1st edition, 1898, light grey cloth boards with significant darkening to spine, gilt dec to front board, but that to spine is virtually illegible, ex-Nottingham High School Library with stamp opposite the title page and number to the spine, dedication to a 'R S Bridge' dated 1898 to half title page and to the inside of the front board is a bookplate 'The Bridge Bequest R.S.B 1920-53'. The date of the library stamp suggests that the school was the recipient of the bequest, contents VG, binding good. Sold with The Light Side of Cricket edited by E B V Christian 1st edition 1898, fawn cloth boards with dec to front cover, browning to spine, a clean, tight copy (copies can be found either with fawn or red cloth boards, but the book was never reprinted), VG Est. £10/15

58. Five signed 1st edition books – the middle order – nearly – part 1. (1) Strictly Me by Mark Ramprakash, 2009; (2) Third Man To Fatty's Leg by Steve James, 2004; (3) The Narrow Line – An Anatomy of Professional Cricket by Geoff Cook, 1991; (4) Time to Declare by Michael Vaughan, 2009; and (5) A Double Life by Phil Neale, 1990. Each signed in early pages by the author. The Cook book is printed on poor quality paper but VG, whilst the others are better. Est. £12/18

59. Five signed 1st edition books – the middle order – no! – part 2. (1) Taking Fresh Guard by Tony Lewis, 2003; (2) Over to You, Aggers by Jonathan Agnew, 1997; (3) Basher – The Autobiography by Basharat Hassan, 2004, Special edition no. 159; (4) Grizzly – My Life and Times in Cricket by Chris Adams, 2015; and (5) Stephen Fleming - Balance of Power by Richard Boock, 2004 (published in New Zealand). Each signed in various early pages by the author – (5) just by the subject. The Lewis printed on poor quality paper, with marks to the top of the pages but VG, whilst the others are better. Est. £12/18

60. There's Only 2 Tony Cottleys by Tony Cottey and David Brayley. 1st edition, dw, 2008. Signed to the title page by Tony Cottey; to the dedication page by Robert Croft, Steve James, Matthew Maynard and another; and opposite the title page by one of Sussex. Excellent Est. £10/12

61. Mounted and signed limited edition print of Arthur Morris by Denise Dean – Wisden Five Cricketers of the Year 1949. Measuring 13 x 11” overall and signed by the artist and by Morris. L/E 148 of 150. In protective cellophane cover. Excellent Est. £10/15

62. Mounted and signed limited edition print of Barry Richards by Denise Dean – Wisden Five Cricketers of the Year 1969. Measuring 13 x 11” overall and signed by the artist and by Richards. L/E 148 of 150. In protective cellophane cover. Excellent Est. £10/15

63. Eight signed hardback books by Nico Craven. All published between 1975 and 1983 from the Gloucestershire supporting but Cumbria based author who “looks at cricket through an amused and contented pair of eyes”. Titles include Suddenly it was Summer; August Occasions; A Friend of the Family and Tea for 22. Condition Good+ to VG Est. £6/10

64. Eight softback books by Nico Craven. Published between 1970 and 1991, “memories of the county game, as played by Gloucestershire, and of cricket on the village green and the quality of the teas”. Titles include Gloster’s Centenary Cricket; The Merry Months and Waiting for Cheltenham. Condition VG or better Est. £5/8

65. Ten softback books by Nico Craven. Published between 1983 and 2001, these tend to be slightly longer volumes, “a happy memoir of his cricketing travels, high or low”. The four most recent books are all signed by the author, two with the addition of “Recalling the past while recording the present”. Condition VG or better Est. £6/10

The Society is very pleased to have been asked by the Trustees of the Essex CCC Museum to auction some of their surplus items. All proceeds from the following 27 lots will go to further improve their museum premises and collection.

66. Real photograph of the England Eleven, 1864. A brown and white/sepia photograph of the England team taken at Southampton on 7th June 1864, mounted on a larger board (photo 7 x 5”, mount 12 x 10”). The mount shows the photo having taken by S J Wiseman of Southampton. The photo is as good as one might expect for its age, whilst the mount is somewhat ragged at the edges. Est. £30/40

The team members are named below the photograph but an internet search has failed to identify an occasion when all these players might have been in Southampton in June 1864. Nor do all of them seem to have been part of the All England teams of the day.

67. A real photograph of Hobbs and Sutcliffe mounted, framed and glazed. The photograph appears to have been taken aboard a ship; both are in whites, with Hobbs wearing an England blazer. Both have signed the photograph. The frame is a boring black affair measuring 11 x 8”, the photograph being 8 x 6”. The back is a piece of plywood. Its removal may reveal details of the date and location but that is way beyond my pay grade! VG+ Est. £30/40

68. Wisden 1864-78. A facsimile set of the first fifteen Wisdens, produced in 1970 by John Wisden & Co. An earlier set had been produced in 1964, also by John Wisden & Co, long before Willows reprints came on the market. This set comes from the Essex CCC Library and each copy has their library stamp just once inside the front cover, or nearby. The year is neatly displayed on the spine, as is a reference number. Each copy is ‘as new’. Est. £75/90

Members may recall that this set was produced in a yellow – naturally – box with ‘Wisden’ and the years below.

69. A wood block with a metal plate of Jack Hobbs. This is a 5 x 3” wooden block to which a metal printing plate has been affixed. Naturally, the plate is a reverse image of Hobbs standing with bat in front of a set of stumps, not in a batting pose. His signature appears vertically along one of his pads. The Team have refrained from trying to use it, but with the right equipment are sure that it is capable of being used. A most unusual piece of memorabilia. VG Est. £10/15

70. A folder of 73 press photographs relating to the England tour of the West Indies 1998. Subjects are: Thorpe (6); Tufnell (12); Russell (4); Stewart (8); Hollis (11); Lloyd (6); Caddick (7); Fraser (5); Crawley (5); Atherton (8) and one of Tufnell and Atherton. These are all high quality photographs, around A4 in size, all unsigned and all appear to be slightly different poses. As new Est. £15/20

71. England v New South Wales 1934/35 press photograph. This shows 'Miss Hazel Pritchard who brilliantly scored 75 not out for NSW v England in the second innings.....'. Measures 5 x 6.5", b&w and shows Hazel Pritchard and 3 England fielders. Slight loss to top left corner, not affecting the image. Good+ Est. £6/10

Hazel Pritchard played in 6 Test matches for Australia between 1934 and 1937 and opened the batting in the first women's Test match in 1934.

72. A press photographs of Australian interest. A 6.5 x 4.5" b&w photo of Bradman being helped from the field in the Oval Test, 1938. That's what it says on the back but it doesn't quite look like that in the photo. Sold with a small collection of Ashes memorabilia comprising a copy of The Evening News dated 5th December 1936 with a front page article and scorecard for the Test in Brisbane; a copy of The Story of the Ashes published by the MCC in 1966 (originally produced in 1961) bound in red cloth boards with an Essex CCC Library stamp to the front cover; two 10 x 8" cards with a photo of 'England' and 'Australian Tour 1961' and facsimile signatures of all the players (M J K Smith is named as Mick Smith); two postcard photos, one of England and one of Australia – 1953 or 1956 (captains were May and Johnson) with facsimile signatures to the reverse; and a copy of England Keep the Ashes by Crawford White, relating to the tour of 1954-55. This copy has the scoresheets for each Test match completed with all scoring shots recorded and full over-by-over bowling figures. (Were all copies printed like this – or is this unusual?) All VG, but the 1936 item is browned as newspaper tends to be with age. Est. £20/40

73. Two metal plates from Pakistan events. (1) about 9" in diameter, it has a decorated half inch band round the rim and a shield design to the centre "With Compliment [sic] From ABN-AMRO Bank Pakistan Under-25 Cricket Team". No date, no identifying marks; and (2) similar size with a more interesting design to the rim, this relates to the "Pakistan Under-19 Cricket Team England Tour 1974". The players' names are listed in two columns between which – top to bottom – a small Pakistan flag, coloured, a decoration resembling a small tower (but I think it has some other significance), then "Presented by Board of Control for Cricket in Pakistan" and star with ??? in Urdu. Azhar Khan was the captain, Javed Miandad the vice-captain and Imtiaz Ahmed the manager. It is designed to stand on three feet. It is possible, but we can't be certain, that these were only given to tour members. Both are VG, with (2) being far more attractive. Est. £18/25

74. A most unusual miniature bat relating to the MCC tour to South Africa 1948 in that it's very light and could almost be handmade. The whole thing is only 8½" long but 2" wide. The signatures, which are somewhat blurred, are: F G Mann, S C Griffiths, Roly Jenkins, Cliff Gladwin, Len Hutton, Allan Watkins, Reg Simpson, Godfrey Evans, Denis Compton, Alec Bedser, Cyril Washbrook, Maurice Tremlett, Jack Crapp, Jack Young and Doug Wright – with help from Wikipedia. Charles Palmer's signature is missing. Some are much clearer than others. Good+ Est. £12/18

75. Two mounted, framed and glazed 'Cricketers 1928' cards. Originally produced by Worthington Best Bitter, these are two sets of only three of the 36 cards AND are 1992 reproductions by Imperial Tobacco Ltd. The first has cards 8/9/12 of Hon F S G Calthorpe, D R Jardine and P G H Fender, the second cards 7/10/11 of C Hallows, W Rhodes and H Sutcliffe.

Both are 8 x 6" overall, attractively framed and displayed. In truth full sets, framed and glazed are both difficult to sell and display, whilst these are much more manageable. Est. £4/6

76. A spectacular album of stamps, 1st day covers etc. There are around 50 display pages with each item neatly annotated. Contents include an unusual Gloucester emergency Postal service envelope stamped with 'England win the Ashes 1970/71 Tour'; a non-cricket stamp from the Tom Graveney collection of Australian stamps sold in 2003 by private treaty, the stamp having an inverted watermark (off centre); a Hove Centenary FDC signed by Tony Greig, Ted Dexter, John Snow and Jim Parks; a small collection of envelopes addressed to The Secretary, Lord's from various overseas Cricket Associations – Canada, Ecuador, South Africa, Australia, Australian Commission, Hong Kong, Malawi, Holland, Corfu, USA, Ireland, Belgium and New Zealand; and a whole host of other cricketing philately items. An A4 sized green folder and everything in it is in excellent condition. Est. £30/50

77. Mounted, framed and glazed print Village Cricket by John Ritchie c1855. Overall 20 x 15", print 16 x 11" in a gilt frame. The scene itself has a rudimentary game taking place to the left and a bank of spectators to the right. The scorer, in top hat, sits at a table in the centre, he being almost the focal point. A very well done piece of art, equally well mounted and framed. Est. £8/10

78. A mounted, framed and glazed set of Nostalgia reprints of 50 Wills cigarette cards. The original cards are the 1896 series, these having been reprinted in 1982. This set is beautifully presented, the subjects themselves depicted in bright colours. Overall 19 x 16" Excellent Est. £8/12

79. Ashes Winning Captains – Victoria Trading cards, mounted, framed and glazed. A complete set of 25 cards, 24 of which illustrate Ashes winning captains, the centre display being of the Ashes. These were produced in 1992 and drawn by Rob Larson. Around 19 x 16" overall. An attractive set, rarely seen by the Team. Excellent Est. £10/15

80. A mounted, signed cartoon by Mark Huskough of an elderly batsman running down the pitch arms and bat aloft in celebration. The caption: Umpire – He's got his 1,000 runs, Bowler: In May?, Umpire: No, in his lifetime. Very pleasant caricature cartoon signed by the artist, bottom left and dated 98; also signed in pencil to the mount by the artist. Excellent Est. £4/6

81. Montage of 'England's CWC Final Captains'. That's the heading above three photographs – Graham Gooch, Mike Brearley and Mike Gatting – below each are the date, opponents and venue of their achievement and below that a pencil signature of each. Limited edition, this being 2 of 10. I was initially concerned that the signatures were part of the printing process but we have a second copy (7/10) and the positioning and detail of the signatures does vary. Excellent Est. £5/8 (both for sale at Derby)

82. A wonderful image relating to St Peter's Cricket Club, Vatican. Overall 15 x 11" or thereabouts showing what the vendor described as 'a certificate' with a heading – St Peter's Cricket Club, below which are cross keys in gold and silver, red design and the Vatican shaded as background; then, underneath, 'Pontifical Council for Culture Vatican'. Absolutely stunning – see the illustration. As new Est. £10/15

83. Two identical cartoons by ffoulkes, one framed and glazed, the other just a paper version. The route of the ball is depicted in a dotted line – it's by no means straight – and the befuddled batsman bears a grim expression when his middle stump is taken out. Three ecstatic fielders jump for joy, against a backdrop of a pavilion. The framed version is excellent, the paper one has marks to the right edge – bin it and keep the other! Est. £4/6

84. MCC tour to India, Oct 1933 to March 1934. A Sind Sports Depot Karachi full-size bat signed by all 16 of the touring team plus manager, Major Ricketts. Players: Douglas Jardine,

Cyril Walters, WHV “Hopper” Levett, Stan Nichols, Hedley Verity, Fred Bakewell, EW “Nobby” Clark, James Langridge, Charlie Barnett, Harry Elliott, Leslie Townsend, Arthur Mitchell, Charles Marriott, Bob Gregory and John Human. The team played three Tests as “England”, winning the series 2-0. Though some signatures are a little faded, all are legible. Despite being 93 years old, the bat is in excellent condition. Est. £70/100

85. Lord’s Taverners v Essex, 1987. A Duncan Fearnley bat, multi-signed, the cricketers identified include Fred Rumsey, John Snow, John Price, Butch White, Jim Yardley, Mike Denness and Graham Saville. Others include Neil Durden-Smith, Trevor Brooking, John Bromley, Russell Osman and Barry Hearn. Excellent condition Est. £15/20

86. West Indies 1988. A Gunn & Moore “Maestro” full-size bat signed by 15 of the 16 players (missing Marshall): Richards, Greenidge, Haynes, Richardson, W Benjamin, Walsh, Harper, Logie, Ambrose, Arthurton, Williams, Bishop, Patterson, Hooper and Dujon. Also signed by team manager Jackie Hendriks. A couple of signatures fading, bat handle rubber has a hole and is wearing, otherwise VG. Est. £25/40

87. A Jocelyn Galsworthy print of the Colchester Festival. A mounted, framed and glazed limited edition (42/350) print of her original watercolour painting looking across the ground from the pavilion. Like all her work it’s splendid. Signed to the mount by her and Graham Gooch. Overall 71 x 53 cm, print 53 x 34 cm. Excellent Est. £18/30

88. Malahide Cricket Club (1995). A mounted print with that title by Neville Henderson. A very pleasing view looking across the ground towards the pavilion, with a match in progress. The figures are particularly well drawn, something which is not always apparent on some cricket pictures. Both print and mount are very good but both have been laid down to a thicker board and the bottom corners are ever so slightly becoming loose; decent glue and a heavy press would solve this. Overall 52.5 x 40 cm, print 41 x 28 cm. VG+ Est. £10/15

Friend Google is not forthcoming with biographical details of Neville Henderson but a site showed images of his work which had been sold at auction. This particular one was not shown but several other Irish subjects were. If it walks like a duck and quacks like a duck.....!

89. The University Ground, Durham by Roy Perry. A limited edition print (27/250) signed in pencil below the print itself to the bottom right corner. Another well composed cricket scene depicting an early season match, if the foliage is a clue, with a view across the ground with a backdrop of the city. I confess to liking his works as he seems to capture the atmosphere very well. Overall 61.5 x 43 cm which makes it an expensive proposition to have it framed and glazed – a shame really, as it’s splendid. VG+ Est. £10/15

Roy Perry (1935-93) was born in Liverpool, read economics at Southampton University then ‘masqueraded as a chartered accountant’. Offered redundancy in 1971, he was already an established artist and successful enough to paint full time. He moved to Donhead St Mary in Dorset and set up in a converted water mill, successfully displaying his works in various exhibitions and solo exhibitions. His originals sell for large sums.

90. A JAK cartoon for which you will need to read on.....as it defies description in a few words. There is an elderly gentleman speaking to the parish vicar, as his choir members leave the church each carrying a large banner of Gooch, Lamb, Malcolm, Larkins and Small. Above the scene is a large banner “1st Test Thanksgiving Servi.....”. Behind the elderly gentleman and the vicar is a poster “Onward Christian Bowlers”. Below this scene in pencil are the words of the elderly gentleman - “The Bishop feels you’ve gone over the top with our victory now! If we’d won three in a row.....!” The context seems to be that this is a larger cartoon proof as below the above quote is written “ x 5 cos [copies?] Mail on Sunday 4th March 1990 20% tint”. This is a most unusual item, certainly not among the artwork which has found its way to our auctions. Overall 63 x 52 cm, in black and white, on a stiff board. Excellent Est. £12/18

The cartoon refers to the 1st Test in Kingston which England won by 9 wickets, with Small and Malcolm taking 4 wickets each in the 2nd innings. This is not my first brush with AI, as it tells me that this cartoon satirizes the controversial 'rebel' tour to South Africa during the apartheid era. Not so, but the West Indies did ban anyone who had played on a rebel tour. Unfortunately, accessing a copy of the Mail on Sunday is not possible, at least not to me.

91. John Player cigarette cards, 1938. A mounted, framed and glazed display of the 50 cards in the series. One, however, has slipped from the mounting but can be replaced quite simply. Overall 60 x 70 cm. VG Est. £5/10

92. 'The Ultimate Test' by Jack Russell. A mounted, framed and glazed limited edition print (161/250) 'commemorating 23 years of Cornhill's sponsorship of Test cricket and England's famous victory over the West Indies at Lord's 2000'. Signed aside the limitation by Jack Russell and below the print by the 11 members of the England team. Overall 82 x 66cm. The view is towards the pavilion with the scoreboard displaying 187-8. Excellent Est. £50/80

I've failed completely to find a copy of this anywhere, including JR's website but his limited edition prints are listed at around £90.

93. Photograph of Winners (Nottinghamshire) NatWest T20 BLAST 2017 celebrating on the winners' podium. The photograph is 23 x 15cms and mounted giving a final size of 30.3 x 25.5cms. The players, Hales, Wessels, Patel, Taylor, Mullaney, Christian, Root, Sodhi, Ball, Gurney and Moores have signed the mount. Est. £8/12

94. Photograph of Winners (Nottinghamshire) ROYAL LONDON ONE DAY CUP 2017 celebrating on the winners' podium. The photograph is 23 x 15cms and mounted giving a final size of 30.3 x 25.5cms. Geoffrey Saulez

A chartered accountant by profession, an excellent statistician and a talented club cricketer, Geoffrey Saulez became the England scorer, having taken early retirement from Price Waterhouse. As the official scorer he was presented with several gifts – tokens of appreciation. The following 5 lots - after the first lot - contain such items. Not all bear his name and, indeed, very few have anything to do with cricket. They are, however, attractive items which a tin of Brasso will enhance dramatically! The Team are aware of their provenance and confirmation of this can provided for each lot.

151. A menu 'A Century of Sporting Heritage' 1877-1977 Melbourne Cricket Ground. This is marked at the top 'To Geoffrey Saulez Best Wishes' from John F Weickhard (?), Curator of the Anthony Baer Cricket Museum 10.3.1977. Sold with a large mounted photograph – overall 18 x14" – of Camberley Cricket Club, 1951 with G G A Saulez on the front row. VG Est. £5/8

152. Six Sri Lankan items. (1) a small globe shaped item on a stand, with removable top; the band around the removable top has 'England Tour of Sri Lanka 1982'; (2) a medal in a Perspex box, circa 5 cms in diameter inscribed 'England Vs Sri Lanka First Ever Test Match 17-22 February 1982' to the obverse and to the reverse 'Hatton National Bank Ltd Sponsors of the First Ever Test Match' with 'G Saulesz' below 'Hatton National Bank Ltd'; (3) a metal goblet with the coat of arms of England and Sri Lanka below which is etched 'England v Sri Lanka Inaugural Test Match at Lord's August 1984 Presented by The Test and County Cricket Board'; (4) a metal cup/drinking vessel (no handle), no inscription but with a label with an address in Nugegoda, a suburb of Colombo; (5) a large metal plate designed to be hung on a wall; the shape approximates to the shape of Sri Lanka; the indented 'centre' is a shape of the island surrounded by bronze and blue triangles and the island bears the inscription 'Presented to Geoffrey Saulez by The Board of Control for Cricket in Sri Lanka in appreciation for being their scorer on their first official tour of the United Kingdom in August 1984'; and (6) a small square wooden tea chest to which on one of the panels is '1st Three Day International at Uyanwatte Grounds Matara Shri Lanka vs Australia August 1982 With Compliments of The Honourable Deputy Speaker of Parliament, Gamini Fonseka'. The medal is excellent, the box VG+; the three 'tin'/metal items in need of said Brasso, whilst (5) is a stunning item. Est. £40/60

153. Two West Indian items. (1) a circular black wooden tray with a central design 'Barbados' and 'West Indies'; between these is a map showing the different districts/regions of Barbados; around the outside are five typical Bajan scenes – none of which depict a cricket scene; and (2) a shield with a thick wooden base with a metal plaque inscribed 'Twentieth Anniversary of Shell Shield Cricket Shell Award XI versus New Zealand Jamaica 1985'. Although these were part of Geoffrey's collection, there seems to be no link to him being involved in scoring. VG+ Est. £5/8

154. Six Indian items. (1) a metal cup, with handle to the left, with the BCCI insignia affixed above the text – 'Presented by the Board for Control of Cricket in India during the tour of England vs India 1981/82'; (2) a small metal tankard inscribed 'Presented by Benud Behari Dutta Diamond Merchant Calcutta 1 & 25'; not sure the '&' is a true representation of what is inscribed; (3) a somewhat small but heavy item, wooden bases with a metal design on a metal base, the design being ??? with crossed cricket bats and a ball; a metal plaque bears the inscription 'Rajasthan Cricket Association MCC v/s Board President's XI 13-15 Nov. 1984 Jaipur'; (4) a pair of cufflinks, square, with the BCCI insignia, in an unusual plastic box atop of which is the inscription 'With Best Compliments of Board of Control; for CRICKET IN INDIA GOLDEN JUBILEE YEAR 1979'; (5) a heavy item with wooden bases with another wooden block encased in metal above; this had an image of a stadium, below which is 'IX Asian games Delhi 1982, an Indian insignia and 'Delhi Development Authority'; a plaque to the reverse is inscribed 'This Indoorindira Prastha Airconditioned Stadium having capacity of 25000 spectators is being built for IX Asian Games Delhi 1982'; and (6) a small wooden block with a triangular metal piece with the inscription 'Serve the Blind' below which is 'Tamaso ma jyotirgamaya' (a Sanskrit phrase which means "lead me from darkness to light"); a plaque below has 'All India Revenue Unit, NAB December 7 1981'. Although Geoffrey's name does not appear on any of these items, it is presumed that each was presented to him. Condition varies but all at least VG, but perhaps in need of a polish. Est. £50/80

155. One Pakistani items and two of unknown origin. (1) a metal dish designed to be hung on a wall, circular, with a central design of a peacock whose fan is in orange and gold; the outer rim has a beautiful design in red, black white and pale yellow; it is inscribed on the reverse 'Presented by Municipal Corporation Faisalabad (Pakistan)'; (2) a circular metal dish, designed to be hung on a wall with an intricate pattern in gold and black; and (3) a larger circular metal plate with intricate design but no colour. Items (2) and (3) certainly originate from the sub-continent but India, Pakistan or Sri Lanka is beyond the Team's current expertise. All are VG+ with (1) being quite spectacular. Est. £25/45

156. Three unrelated items. (1) a boxed cup and saucer by Royal Worcester with a cricket design to both; the inside rim of the cup bears 'To a Very Important Person'; the box has a sticker affixed – 'Geoffrey Something for breakfast in Ireland, to remember your birthday and Christmas 1992'. Clearly Geoffrey never used it because under the lid of the box is '11-9-98 Happy Birthday Irving [Rosenwater] and many happy returns'; (2) a large, solid circular metal plate with an inscription to the centre 'Well scored Geoffrey New Zealand 1980/81; and (3) a metal shield, possibly mounted on a wooden base, designed to be hung on a wall, with 'Middlesex County Cricket Club Gillette Cup Winners 1980' below which are the names of the 12 players, an image of the Cup and 6th September 1980 below. (3) appears from time to time; (1) is seen frequently but never boxed and never with the two associations this one has. (1) is as new; (2) a little grubby – in need of a clean; and (3) is almost as good. Est. £12/18

157. A Well Filled Autograph Book from late sixties. The signatories include Micky Stewart, Ken Barrington, John Edrich*, K. 158. A mid-1920s album of cricket press cuttings A hardback, 56pp book filled with press cuttings relating to the 1924 Test series v South Africa and the 1926 Ashes series plus county cricket, particularly Nottinghamshire, but also Derbyshire, Leicestershire and the Sir Julian Cahn's XI. The cuttings have been carefully cut and stuck to the pages, with over 30 more loose cuttings secured within the flaps of the book's brown paper cover. A fascinating record of the era, well-preserved and in VG condition. Est. £20/30

159. 1947 County, Test and other autographs Pages from an autograph book containing a variety of interesting signatures, all from the 1947 season. County players: Essex (11, including Dodds, Pearce and Vigar); Glamorgan (11, including Wooller, Watkins and Muncer); Hampshire (7, including Holt, Bailey and Harrison); Somerset (8, including Tremlett, Gimblett 3 Tests, Jack Meyer, Millfield School's first Headmaster and "Bertie" Buse*), Gloucestershire 4 (including Crapp, 7 Tests, and Lambert) and Worcestershire 2 (Walters and Styler). The Oxford University pages (11 signatures) include several who played Tests and/or county cricket: Abdul Hafeez Kardar (India, Warwickshire and Pakistan), Martin Donnelly (Warwickshire and New Zealand), Pawson and Mallett (Kent), Sutton (Somerset), P A Whitcombe (Middlesex), Robinson (Canada), plus Basil Travers (an England rugby international). One page is signed by BBC Sports commentator Rex Alston and Dana Niehaus, who that year was the first to broadcast in Afrikaans for the South Africa tour to England. Finally come two footballers, Amos Moss (Aston Villa) and Jimmy Duggan (West Bromwich Albion). VG Est. £18/25

Buse's benefit match in 1953 unfortunately ended on the first day's play, with Somerset losing by an innings to Lancashire on a tricky wicket at Taunton. Somerset generously waived the match costs (normally paid by the beneficiary) and set up a fund for him, which raised around £2,800.*
